

Performance Roulette

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MARCH 18, 2011 - 7 PM CST - www.cccponline.net

Call for Participants + Viewers

In a country as wide and spread out as Canada, covering 9.9 million square kilometers, we at the Central Canadian Center for Performance believe that these distances can't stop creation and collaboration.

The Central Canadian Center for Performance is calling for performance artist from across Canada and around the world to join us in an un-jurried international performance festival: Performance Roulette. In this event performers can perform from the comfort of their own home, in front of a web cam in a ChatRoulette style environment. You will become part of a network of other performers and audiences.

If desirable, performers can email us their names (submission@cccponline.net) and we will compile of a list of confirmed participants on our website and promotional material so that audiences can look for their favorite performers. After that it is simple: log on at www.cccponline.net on March 18 at 7pm Central Standard Time and perform. On Performance Roulette anything goes.

We will also have a public space available in the center of Canada (Winnipeg), for participants to come out to and participate within a more social context. This also allows anyone who may be less tech savvy, or lacking the necessary hardware, knowledge or bandwidth to participate. The event will take place at AceArtInc., 288 McDermot
